52. AN ACCIDENT

The subject of collecting prints that may be common to-day and rare to-morrow is one which in these days enters very considerably into the regions of practical and domestic politics. On the principle that nobody keeps what everybody else has, so an etching or a print, which is published by its thousands, often becomes extremely rare in a very short space of time. Many of them are well worth the keeping, well worth the framing, and well worth the hanging. There is a wealth of drawing worth framing from the pens of such men as Phil May Too much good work is just now allowed to waste. — The Sketch.

"With bad paper, one's best is impossible."

The Author's Hairless Paper-Pad (Issued by The Leadenhall Press, Ltd:) Contains, in block form, fifty sheets of strong hairless paper, over which—being of unusual but not painful smoothness—the pen slips with perfect freedom. Easily detachable, the size of the sheets is about $7\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$ in., and the price is only that charged for common scribbling paper. THE AUTHOR'S HAIRLESS PAPER-PAD may be comfortably used, whether at the desk, held in the hand, or resting on the knee. As being most convenient for both author and compositor, the paper is ruled the narrow way, and of course on one side only. — Sixpence each: 5/- per dozen, ruled or plain.*

The Author's Hairless Paper-Pad Holder—suggested by Punch—is equally useful to the busy few who write when travelling, and to stay-at-homes who dislike the restraint of desk or table. It is intended that the wooden rim at the side of the AUTHOR'S HAIRLESS PAPER-PAD HOLDER should be grasped by the left hand, the right being free to travel over the whole surface of the paper from top to bottom. The height of Pad and Holder will be kept uniform if each written sheet is placed as torn off underneath the Pad, the base of which is now thick blotting paper instead of the old and useless cardboard. The ordinary sloped position when in use keeps Pad and Holder together.—One Shilling each.*

* If to be forwarded by post, send 2d. extra for postage of single Pad and 1s. for postage of one dozen Pads. The postage on one Pad-Holder is 2d., and one Pad-Holder and one Pad together 3d.
